

Henry Allen & Son FURNISHING
UNDERTAKERS
58 Main Street.
ADY ASSISTANT WHEN REQUESTED.

ALL THE Rexall
Remedies

Sevin's Drug Store

FINE TAILORING
John Kukla,
Merchant Tailor, 208 Main St.
JUN10

STEP IN AND TRY OUR 35c DINNER
From 12 to 2
DEL-HOFF CAFE, Ground Floor
JUN20

Plenty of those Fancy Native Chickens
FOR SUNDAY DINNER
ALL VEGETABLES ALL FRUITS

PEOPLE'S MARKET,
6 Franklin St. aug10 JUSTIN HOLDEN, Prop.

Summer Toys

PAIS and SHOVELS, SAND TOYS, SAIL and MECHANICAL BOATS, BASEBALLS, GLOVES, MITTS, LUNCH BASKETS,
JAPANESE PARASOLS, FANS, ETC.

MRS. EDWIN FAY, Franklin Square
JUN10

TO-NIGHT Arcareh
10c
WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

WOLF

Floral Designs and Cut Flowers
For All Occasions.
GEDULDIG'S,
Telephone 358. 77 Cedar Street.
JUN20

The Norwich Nickel & Brass Co., Tableware,
Chandeliers, Yacht Trimmings and such things Refinished.
66 to 87 Chestnut St. Norwich, Conn. oct10

WHAT'S NEW
THE PALACE CAFE
Step in and see us.
FRANK WATSON & CO.,
mar30 78 Franklin Street.

J. F. CONANT, 11 Franklin Street.
Whitstone St. and the J. F. C. 10c Cigs are the best on the market.
Try them. mar10

LOUIS H. BRUNELLE BAKERY
We are confident our Pies, Cakes and Bread cannot be excelled. Give us a trial order.
nov25 20 Fairmount Street.

C. H. PERKINS, M. D., Oculist
Room 26 Shannon Building.
Office hours—10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 4 p. m.
JUN20

QUALITY
In work should always be considered, especially when it costs no more than the inferior kind. Skilled men are employed by us. Our prices tell the whole story.
STETSON & YOUNG,
mar10

There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Saturday, Aug. 20, 1910.

The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 8 a. m.
Subscribers who fail to receive it at the time will confer a favor by reporting the fact to The Bulletin Co.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for To-day.

For New England—Fair Saturday and Sunday, slightly warmer Sunday in west portion; moderate north to northeast winds.

Prediction from the New York Herald.

Saturday partly overcast to clearing weather and moderate temperatures will prevail, with light to fresh variable winds, mostly northerly; and on Sunday fair weather, with slowly rising temperatures.

Observations in Norwich.
The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Friday:

Comparisons.
Friday's weather: Heavy showers in morning.

Sun, Moon and Tides.

Day	Time	Height	Time	Height
11	4:36	8.49	5:17	11.57
12	4:57	8.47	6:06	10.91
13	5:18	8.46	6:53	10.25
14	5:39	8.45	7:39	9.59
15	6:00	8.44	8:24	8.93
16	6:21	8.43	9:09	8.27
17	6:42	8.42	9:51	7.61

Six hours after high water it is low tide, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENVILLE

Miss Annie Cunningham Receives Check for $1,000 from the Knights of Columbus—Campers Returning—Local Personalities.

As beneficiary of her brother, Andrew Cunningham, who passed away a short time ago, Miss Annie Cunningham received on Friday from White Cross council, K. of C., a check for $1,000, which was the amount for which he was insured in the order.

Returned from Camp.

John Gleason and Y. Dave Campbell returned on Friday from a delightful one week's camping experience at Richards' grove. They state that they had a glorious time and during their sojourn at the grove received many visits from local people.

Personal Paragraphs.

Ernest Fox of Tenth street is visiting his grandmother in Plainfield.

William Shea of Sixth street and James Farrell of Fourth street have accepted positions in Hartford.

John McMahon of Carlton Hill, N. J., formerly of Greenville, is visiting old friends in the village this week.

Robert G. Dion has returned to his home in Williamstown after spending a few days with friends on Central avenue.

Mrs. Sidney Kniffin and Mrs. Charles Fox of Tenth street are visiting at New London and Ocean Beach for a few days.

Horace Sherman of Jamestown, R. I., formerly of this place, is visiting at the home of his brother, Edward Sherman of the city.

Mrs. John Cook and Miss Sallie Cook of Hartford, who have been guests of Mrs. E. W. Loomis of Twelfth street, have returned home.

Miss Estelle Rohrer of Arctic Center, R. I., leaves today (Saturday) after a pleasant visit of ten days' duration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ethier on Central avenue.

Frank O. Duffey, who has been employed in the office at the bleachers, has accepted a position in Warren, Mass. He will take up his new duties at the first of next month.

Miss Myrtle Kniffin, who has been spending her summer's vacation with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kniffin, of Tenth street, has returned to her home at Short Beach.

TAFTVILLE

Miss Elizabeth Hertel Given Tin Shower—Young Sluggers Defeat Young Eagles—Village Note and Comment.

The Young Sluggers defeated the Young Eagles on the local diamond Friday morning by the score of 8 to 5.
The contest was an exciting one throughout the whole game and was witnessed by a large number of main features were the splendid pitching of Wilfrid Langlois, a home run by John Murphy and a two batter hit by John Coe and Daniel Perkins.
The following was the lineup: Young Sluggers—Fred Broucher, c; Joseph Goulet, p; Eugene Tetreault, 1b; Wilfrid Desmarais, 2b; John Coe, ss; Michael Murphy, 3b; Oliver Fournier, lf; Francis Murphy, cf; Roland Jubeau, rf; Young Eagles—Danny Perkins, c; Wilfrid Langlois, p; John Coe, 1b; Charles McSheffrey, 2b; Eugene Mercier, ss; Joseph Lepine, 3b; Wilfrid Mercier, cf; Edward McSheffrey, lf; Ty. Paul, rf.

Pleasant Time at Tin Shower.

A tin shower was given to Miss Elizabeth Hertel at her home on North A street Wednesday evening by a party of her young friends in the village.
A large number of useful presents of the tin variety were made. A goodly number was present and a delightful time was had by all.

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands.
Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Baring, Maine.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system.
Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsapabs.

Funeral

CAGER, Director
and Embalmer

70 Franklin St., Bulletin Bldg.
Telephone 642-2.
Prompt service day or night.
Lady Assistant.
Residence, 112 Broadway, opp. Theatre.
Telephone 642-3.

Unclaimed Letters.

The list of unclaimed letters at the Norwich, Conn., postoffice for the week ending August 20, 1910, follows: Clara E. Allen, Ansonia, Ct.; Harry Barker, Mr. Cresswell, Ansonia, Ct.; A. F. Cocker, Mrs. Ida Emery, T. P. Allen, Ansonia, Ct.; Harvey, Morris Rosen, Hartford, Ct.; Ross, Eva B. Rogers, Edna Shick, Mrs. Archibald Kyle, South A street, Tromey, Lena Lathrop Wood.

WILLING TO ABIDE BY CHOICE OF BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION AS LEADER FOR HIS STATE TICKET—URGES THEM TO GET INTO POLITICS.

Mayor Charles F. Thayer is torn between two loves and is unable to decide between Bryan F. Mahan, mayor of New London, and Daniel P. Dunn, Williamstown's mayor, as a gubernatorial "tail" to his senatorial "kite." Writing to the State Business Men's association, his latest open letter Friday said:
"Just to keep in fashion, I am looking about for a candidate for governor. But I am in somewhat of a quandary. The advantage could be with either were 'other dear, dearer away.' Thayer asked the association to sound 'their two gentlemen on your public utilities bill. He who passes the best examination shall be my running mate."

The letter congratulates the Business Men upon their campaign of education for the public utilities bill and registers the author as "heart and soul" in that part of their campaign. "I am conducting an educational campaign," he wrote Mayor Thayer. "It is aimed against the present unrighteous system of selecting United States senators now in vogue which begins with the use of money in towns to debauch the voters and ends with the use of money in the general assembly to debauch the legislators." The letter calls such degrading the spectacle of such a senator sitting in the upper house at Washington, and adds: "And the state of Connecticut should open its eyes early enough to prevent a similar disgrace in the coming senatorial election."

The democratic candidate for United States senator does not agree with the association's spirit in declaring itself out of politics. If am in politics," said Mayor Thayer in the letter, "and believe that you ought to be as every other good business man ought to be."

The letter to the State Business Men's Association, Norman F. Allen, Chairman Legislative Committee:

"Fools rush in where angels fear to tread. That is the motto of the ruth at you and your proposed public utilities bill. I notice that the angels are not rushing in; or are they merely dodging?"

"You see, it is this way: We happen to be in the same business. I am conducting a campaign of education, and as Tom Platt, one-time United States senator, has said to me: 'No man ever got into politics by dodging.' I am on the road to the United States senate, and as the old woman said, 'by the broad and narrower path.' Before going a step further, let me be known that I am with you heart and soul in that part of your campaign where you are seeking to ascertain the attitude of candidates and parties upon this important public question, and understand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"Now, are you with me heart and soul in that part of my campaign of education? I am seeking to ascertain and inform the people as to the attitude of prospective legislators on the important question whether the people shall have something to say about the selection of United States senators, or whether one man in the state shall have the say as to whether he will go to the senate himself or deliver the seat to one of his underlings. I am seeking to ascertain the attitude of candidates and parties upon
this important public question, and understand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and understand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

THE BULLETIN ON PUBLIC UTILITIES

Willing to Abide by Choice of Business Men's Association as Leader for His State Ticket—Urges Them to Get Into Politics.

trade. I am not promising to scratch your back if you will scratch mine. I am with you whether or no.
"My campaign of education is aimed against the present unrighteous system of selecting United States senators now in vogue, which begins with the use of money in towns to debauch the voters and ends with the use of money in the general assembly to debauch the legislators. When I take the stump I shall discuss every phase of the question and you will see that I do realize what an inspiration it will be to know that your association and every member of it believes exactly as I do."

"You declare that you are not in politics—are not seeking to carry on a political campaign. That is where we differ. I am in politics and believe that you ought to be as every other good business man ought to be. Why should not every member of your association be in politics? Webster defines politics as 'the science of government; that part of ethics which has to do with the regulation and establishment of a nation or state, the preservation of its safety, peace and prosperity, the defense of its rights, the preservation and improvement of its morals.' My present campaign has to do chiefly with the last clause of this definition. Is it not time to polish up the morals of United States senators? No man can be a senator without being a politician, and a politician is a man who is not a nation or state than a senator occupying his seat in defiance of the will of the people of that state and Connecticut should open its eyes early enough to prevent a similar disgrace in the coming senatorial election."

"The Norwich Morning Bulletin, in spite of your statement that you are not in politics, has said that you are in politics up to your neck. I hope you are and that you will stay in.
You have the right to quiz those who intend to influence legislators. The people have the right to know where the people of that state stand on important questions before they vote for such candidates. Go right ahead and put it up to every candidate as soon as he shall have been nominated for the legislature. If he ducks, that is the sign of a coward. No man need dodge your questions if he intends to stand on his own feet in the legislature. If he is a coward, let the machine evade him, let him twist, dodge and evade. Hit every such head as soon as it appears."

"Yes, I am in politics. It seems to be the fashion this year for each candidate for the United States senate to select a candidate for the governorship to run with him. Like sheep dogs, they seem to be hunting in pairs. Just to keep in the fashionable line of hunting about for a candidate for governor to help along my campaign prior to the state convention in good roads.
I am half way to the senate myself or deliver the seat to one of his under-
lings. I am seeking to ascertain the
attitude of candidates and parties upon
this important public question, and understand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with
the necessary powers, and we may
add, beyond the influence of the New Haven railroad."

"I am seeking to ascertain the attitude
of candidates and parties upon this
important public question, and under-
stand the principles of efficient regulation
of the public service corporations by
means of a commission clothed with the necessary powers, and